J.S. Khehar, J. (Oral).

Learned counsel for the petitioners on instructions from the petitioners states, that the instant writ petition has been rendered infructuous on account of the fact, that all the petitioners have qualified the basic course prescribed for Constables (Operators), during the pendency of this writ petition.

Learned counsel for the petitioners, however, seeks a clarification in terms of the express indication in the impugned order dated 23.7.2004, to the effect, that there is no course as claimed by the petitioners as Operator Grade-III, Operator Grade-II and Operator Grade-I etc. for the Operators' cadre.

Learned counsel for the respondents, on instructions from Mr. Ravinder Singh, Assistant Law Officer, office of the Superintendent of Police(Telecommunication), Punjab, in conjunction with the factual position asserted in para II (b) of the impugned order dated 23.7.2004, clarifies that none of the aforesaid courses is prescribed for the Operators' cadre.

In view of the above, the instant writ petition stands disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.
